GatorBytes

New Faculty Orientation scheduled for Aug. 18 and 19

Welcome to
The Gator Nation.

New Faculty Orientation

If you are a manager, you have a unique opportunity to complete the "Managing at UF: The Supervisory Challenge" certificate with a cohort of peers. Participating in the cohort can provide managers with a forum in which to discuss issues related to leadership and management with like-minded leaders on campus.

Employee Education Program accepting applications for the fall semester

The Employee Education Program (EEP) is a popular benefit available to eligible UF faculty and staff. The program provides tuition assistance for up to six credit hours of eligible college-level courses per semester.

Gator Connections returns for fall

Gator Connections is a UF group designed to help faculty and staff to connect through a series of informal events. Knowing that Gainesville has a lot to offer, but that it can sometimes be difficult to find a network of friends and colleagues, Gator Connections invites UF faculty and staff to bring friends, spouses and partners to share in the community.

The next event is Friday, July 18, at 5:30 p.m. at The Swamp.

Eight ways to recharge this summer

Summer often provides a brief respite from the more hectic activities of the fall and spring semesters at UF. Using our "eight windows to wellness" as a guide—here are a few ways you can recharge and renew without straying far from the office.

Free seminar to include a diabetes-friendly dinner

UF Health will offer community members a chance to keep up with changes in diabetes management when it hosts a free seminar on Thursday, July 17. A free diabetes-friendly dinner will be provided.

This year's New Faculty Orientation is scheduled for Aug. 18 and 19 at Emerson Hall.

APA to host President Machen July 24

The UF Academic and Professional Assembly (APA) will host UF President Bernie Machen for "A Summer Conversation with APA" on Thursday, July 24, at 2 p.m. in Room 100 of Smathers Library East.

Council on Diversity developing campus climate survey

The UF President's Council on Diversity is preparing a campus climate survey to be sent to faculty and staff this fall.

2014-15 Fringe Benefit Pool Rates approved

In an administrative memo dated July 1, Assistant Vice President and University Controller Kim Simpson announced that the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has approved the rates for the pooled fringe benefits for fiscal year 2014-15.
