

AID-A-GATOR

University of Florida Employee Assistance Fund

FOR THE

GATOR GOOD

Help our fellow faculty and staff in need

Among those affected by last week's hurricane were approximately 200 UF faculty, staff and graduate assistants affiliated with the North Florida Research and Education Centers in Quincy and Marianna as well as those throughout 15 UF/IFAS Extension county offices.

Make a donation online today

Donate to UF's Aid-a-Gator emergency fund today online or by payroll deduction via the UF Campaign for Charities. Aid-a-Gator is completely dependent on donations, and awards are contingent upon availability of funds at the time of application. While a small amount is currently available, you can help your colleagues by donating today. Visit the Aid-a-Gator website to learn more.

Make a donation at the Benefits and Wellness Fair on Oct. 18

UF/IFAS is collecting goods critically needed by faculty, staff and graduate students in the Panhandle. Please bring any of the following items to the Benefits and Wellness Fair this Thursday, Oct. 18, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Champions Club in Ben Hill Griffin Stadium:

- Nails/screws (two-inch roofing type for securing tarps to rooftops)
- Hammers/battery-operated screwdrivers/drills
- Miscellaneous tools – tree trimmers, limb clippers, chainsaw accessories, safety glasses
- Work-type gloves
- Large tarps
- Battery-operated fans
- Batteries – especially D cell, AA and AAA
- Battery chargers for phones
- Flashlights, solar-power lights and chargers
- Empty gas cans
- Pet supplies – dog food, cat food, kitty litter
- Charcoal and grill-type lighters
- Mosquito repellent and dunks (tablets for standing water)
- Sunscreen
- Hand sanitizer and hand wipes
- Paper goods – plates, cups, toilet paper, paper towels, plastic utensils
- Cleaning supplies – Lysol wipes, spray, bleach
- Duct tape
- Non-perishable food